PUBLIC NOTICE

IMPORT TRADE CONTROL

New Delhi, the 10th October 1953

SUBJECT:—Import of Indian Type Closets against licences for sanitaryware falling under S. No. 241 (b)—Part IV.

No. 142-ITC(P.N.)/53.—Attention of importers is invited to remarks against S. No. 241(b) of Part IV in Appendix 'A' of the July-December 1953 Policy Red Book according to which import of Indian type closets is not allowed against licences for sanitaryware. It has been represented that this restriction is being sought to be circumvented by arranging to import the two integral parts of the Indian type closet, namely closets and foot-rests, separately. It is clarified for the information of importers that import licences for S. No. 241(b), Part IV are valid only for the imports of closets of the Western type and imports of Indian type closets in any shape or form will not be permitted by the Customs authorities.
